

Agenda

GREET.net Workshop

Conducted by Center for Transportation Research, Argonne National Laboratory

On
21, September 2012

At
Argonne National Laboratory
Advanced Photon Source Building, Rooms E1100/E1200
9700 S. Cass Ave., Argonne, IL 60439

8.30-9.00	Welcoming message and introduction to the software (Michael Wang, Jake Ward, and Amgad Elgowainy)
9.00-10.00	Presentation of the structure and approach of GREET.net for modeling (Vadim Sokolov)
10.00	20 minutes Break (help installing if needed)
10.20-11.20	Getting familiar with the new user interface (Raja Sabbisetti)
11.20-12.00	Open Discussion: Questions, Features, Requests...
12.00-13.30	Lunch break
13.30-15.00	Creating new processes and pathways and producing WTW results (David Dieffenthaler)
15.00	20 minutes Break
15.20-16.00	Open Discussion: Questions, Features, Requests ...
16.00	Adjourn
16.00-17:00	Optional time for users to help with developing their own pathways